

Office of Employment Advocate Agreement Making under WORKCHOICES FREE Seminar

The Office of Employment Advocate's (OEA) primary role is to accept lodgements of workplace agreements.

In doing this, the OEA provides free support and information to both employers and employees on agreement making. The OEA is also available to assist employers and employees understand the Australian Fair Pay and Conditions Standard.

The Agreement Making for Small Business seminar will introduce Australian employers and employees to workplace agreement making under WorkChoices.

The seminar will:

- Highlight the role of Workplace Agreements in the WorkChoices regime;
- Identify the changes to agreement making and the role of the OEA; and
- Provide you with key contacts for further information
